

Christmas Cheer

My dreams of things at Christmas Yule, do not means toys or fancy tools No trucks, no sleds, no costly perks, I'd like to have my village work Nobody hungry, no one in fear that winter's cold and ice up here Will lay them low, too much to cope, to be unhappy, despaired of hope

We in these precincts need to share, our bounty with whose shelves are bare Of festive foods, of joyful treats, and not enough to drink or eat
The children asked to bear the season without the fun, without good reason It seems to me that sharing cheer would give us all a conscience clear(er)

So to my friends and folks I know, enjoy lit candles and lights that glow A wassail glass a dark fruit cake, tastes better if a pledge you'd make To give a thought, a pence or two to make this Christmas grand for you By offering a small amount to folks whose need they can't surmount

Like Tiny Tim Who said, in fun, A Merry Christmas Everyone.
