Trinity United Church

On Sunday, May 20th our guest speaker was Del Manary. Del is a member of Trinity and is also our Treasurer. He is a very gifted speaker and well versed in the Bible. His topic on Sunday was "12 Ordinary Men".

When asked, the congregation named some of the Apostles of which Del filled in the missing.

As Del's sermon title stated, Jesus did not pick people of great importance or ability but 12 ordinary men. While we do not know the background of all of them we know that some were fisherman, some tradesmen and one a tax collector. He chose Peter to be their leader. The one who betrayed him, Judas Iscariot was said to have taken his own life. The rest, with the exception of John, where all crucified. John lived a full life dying at the age of 98. The remarkable feat of these 12 Ordinary Men was that they carried on the work of Christ and brought Christianity to the world.

Everyone is welcome on Sunday's at 11.00 a.m.
