

Apsley Autumn Studio Tour: Only 3 1/2 Months to go!

By Molly Moldovan

Hummingbirds ... trilliums ... blackflies ... studio tour brochures - four things that arrive in our area seemingly at the same time every year. Three of these are highly anticipated, but seriously - who wouldn't prefer to live without blackflies?

By now, you may have noticed our brochures on display at local shops. You might even have taken one, to read and enjoy in a peaceful moment. You might have taken a few, to pass on to friends. You may even be sitting on your dock or in your screened porch (darned black flies!!) as I write this, making plans with friends for which studios you'll visit when tour weekend finally arrives in mid-September.

Want to see more? To celebrate our 25th Anniversary, there will be rotating exhibitions of our work - at Woody's in July & August and, from August onward, in the window of Sayers' Food Town. Over the next few months you can also expect to see a lot of activity on our FaceBook page and on our Instagram account – for which you can find links on our website.

We hope that the exhibitions and social media posts will engage you in a dialogue about the work and about the artists who made it, a conversation to be continued at our studios on September 15 and 16.

In case you haven't got your brochure yet, they will be available at local business locations throughout the summer or they can be viewed online via our web site: apsleystudiotour.com.
