

SEAN CONWAY

NDP Party of Ontario

Sean is a community advocate, originally from Curve Lake First Nation, who has lived in the Peterborough–Kawartha riding for over a decade.

An artist and musician who manages The Garnet’s programming, he’s travelled the country performing, organizing hundreds of music events yearly, while also promoting the Peterborough–Kawartha’s cultural talent and rich heritage.

Sean is eager to join Andrea Horwath’s New Democrats at Queen’s Park to represent the Peterborough–Kawartha communities.

He is committed to continuing to fight for restoring public services, expanding public healthcare to include universal pharmacare and dental care, investing in public education, defending worker’s rights and increasing provincial funding to municipal transit services.

Peterborough County Recognition Awards

On Friday, May 25th, at the Keene Community Centre, three residents of North Kawartha were recognized and thanked for their work to benefit the community. They were:

NK Community Volunteer of the Year: Barry Rand - To recognize individual within the County of Peterborough who has demonstrated community involvement or volunteerism.

NK Business Leadership/Entrepreneurial Innovation - Waddell Custom Homes – Andrew Waddell
This award will consider new and successful initiatives of both new and established businesses that have made outstanding contributions to the County of Peterborough.

NK Leadership in Arts and Culture - Joe McCauley. An individual who has demonstrated excellence in the arts, bringing recognition to Peterborough County.

Congratulations and Thanks to all who were considered for the Peterborough County awards.
