

NORTH KAWARTHA PIECEMAKERS

Story and photos by Judy Ranieri

The 2018 season is well underway, and what started as a small unknown quilting group of like-minded ladies a dozen years ago, has grown into what some would call a sisterhood!

Yes, we're baaack – with a vengeance! Sharing our 'stash-es', taking on new and challenging projects, our group is excited to show you what we've been up to this year at the second annual Quilt Show and Sale.

When: Saturday September 15, 9 am – 3 pm
– Studio Tour Weekend

Where: North Kawartha Community Centre

What: Over 150 quilts on display

There will be lots of quilted items for sale – table runners, placemats, wall hangings, baby quilts, double, queen and king quilts and much much more!

Last years show was such a success. With 250 visitors, and over 170 quilted pieces, the North Kawartha Community Centre was transformed into a bustling hub of colour, texture, and 'seams of friendship'. And we're excited to do it again!

New projects tackled this year include the Library, French braid, Minimal Triangles and Curved Log Cabins.

Mark your calendars, and we'll see you on September 15th!

Photos below and to the right show some of the work on display from last year's inaugural show and sale.
