

at their own pace, and try to not crowd anyone. That is good advice as far as we are concerned as experience has shown us that you need to let nature take its own course, and never more so than with human interactions. The bottom line; if things do not go the way you are pushing them to go, then move on, set your sights and aspirations on something or somewhere where you do fit in, and learn to be content with the choices you make in life. Remember, you only get one life, so live it like it is your only opportunity, because that is what it is. SMILE, it is good for you, and people will smile right back more times than not.

December was a short month for this group as we only meet once owing to the many other commitments our members have. This month saw us having our Christmas repast at the Glen Alda Community Centre. Our caterers served a traditional Christmas turkey dinner with all the trimmings, and some scrumptious pie for desert. I did take a couple of pictures of the event but they did not turn out as well as I would have liked owing to dirt on the lens but have included a sample of the two best.

January 2019 is when we next get together. To start things off this year, we are having a pot luck repast, with Bar-B-Q'd sausage, followed by turkey soup.

These are the only two known dishes as I write this report in mid-December. Worry yourselves not, as Bev and Penny are collaborating to make this a special sampling of the best dishes the members of our little group can put together to bring in the new year. For our second gathering, "The Guys", are going to show what they are capable of cooking up. Tom and Brian will be tickling our tummies with something they are planning as I write this, but I have no clue as to what it is at this point in time, but am looking forward to it just the same.

Remember, we are a friendly, active, open group, so if you wish to join us to see for yourselves what it is all about, give me a call at 705-656-1620.
