A Great Season - North Kawartha Knights

A Highly Competitive Team

Photos and article by Jim O'Shea

Attending the North Kawartha Junior C Knights game home opener, it was quickly apparent that the team was going to have a very successful year. Their excellent physical agility and skating speed was readily observed and a joy to watch. When it came to stick handling and passing, the players demonstrated a high level of expertise by consistently passing the puck accurately from stick to stick. In the opponents end, the Knights were even more impressive. They were like a swarm of bees surrounding the goaltender and, at times, had twice as many shots on the opponents net, which led to a continuous flow of game winning scoring opportunities.

In general, the games throughout the season were well played with very little fighting. Yes, there was the occasional push and shove and aggressive ...
