NK Knights Season - continued from page 1

... defense of the goalie and his net, which is to be expected if they were to consistently win games and maintain their division status.

Many games are won or lost depending on the continuing energy levels of the opposing teams, which usually becomes readily identifiable in the final period. The Knights' energy was excellent and usually lasted until the end of each game, which made winning a more frequent outcome. Well-done Knights! Your fans cannot wait for next season to begin, and once again give their full support toward championship success.

A special thank you is extended to the volunteers and arena staff who ensured that entrance fees were collected, 50/50 tickets sold, ice surface maintained, score clock was accurate, and that a continuous flow of hot dogs, french fries, onion rings and refreshments were always available.
