

The Glory of Autumn

While summer is a glorious time, and Spring is a celebration of nature's rebirth,

No season is as glorious in colour and bounty than Autumn

Trees become candelabras with their flaming gold and red colours

The lake and river add a sparkle to the tips of each wave

The deer and other animals seem to be on higher alert

And the air itself has a unique aroma and feel,

Sharpening its tang, and yet feeling more comfortable

And us? Mere humans are treated to the spectacle of Indian Summer

Thanksgiving brings the unification of family and friendships

And in this short glorious period of the year we celebrate being alive.

All the best to every reader of the Voice, and may the following seasons

Bring their form of joy and pleasure to you all. And with all good wishes include the one more

That the Voice, after a hiatus, will return in Spring like the Robin, the Walleye and the leafy forest.

Have a great fall and an enjoyable winter everyone.

Jim O'Shea reported that in 2018, the McGinn and the Del Mastro families invited several musical groups to play at their property beside Ell's Creek. This this year, they invited twice as many bands and singing groups plus up to 95 trailers or campers and between 400 and 500 people attended. It was a 2 day event. Most enjoyable!
